CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION.—It appears an error occurred in the tabular statement of the polls in Davidson county. In adding together the vote for Mr. Hanes, the column foots up 656 instead of 539, as published last week. We printed according to copy furnished us as official, without examining into the matter. If the mistake was really made in the official returns, Mr. Hanes has a majority of 21 votes in the District, as it stands corrected, and of course is elected.

The matter is being investigated.

FIRE IN LEXINGTON.—We learn that the Court-House and Mr. Perry's storehouse in Lexington, were consumed by fire on Thursday night last. Origin of the fire, accidental.

Seventh.—A. H. Jones, Esq of Henderson, we judge is elected.

Official Vote for Governor.

The following is the aggregate vote of sixty-six counties:

For Mr. Worth,	27,554
" Gov. Holden,	20,507
Mr. Worth's maj.	7,047.

The following Counties remain to be heard from, which will probably reduce Mr. Worth's majority to less than 6000: Alleghany, Ashe, Beaufort, Cherokee and Clay, Currituck, Gates Haywood, Jackson, Lenoir, Macon, Madison, McDowell, Moore, Onslow, Polk, Stanly, Tyrrell, Watauga, Yadkin, and Yancey. The official vote is very slow in reaching the office of Secretary of State.—Raleigh Sentinel.

"NAMELESS." We have been favored with a copy of this charming tale of English life, by Mrs. Fanny Murdaugh Downing, W. B. Smith & Co., publishers, Raleigh, N. C.

This is a North Carolina book, the gifted authoress being a resident of Charlotte, and more than usual interest will attach to it on that account. The scene is laid in England, the characters are drawn to life, very interesting throughout, and in some instances intensely exciting. The perusal of this book will prove a rich treat to all who delight in novel reading. It is handsomely printed on clean white paper, in very creditable to the publishers, and will make a handsome gift for the approaching holidays.

NEWS ITEMS.

Latest From Europe.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The steamships City of London and New York have arrived at this port from Queenstown on the 9th inst.

Among other advices, they bring tidings of the arrival at the Confederate privateer Shenandoah in the Mersey, and her delivery to the English naval authorities.

Capt. Waddell, her commander, has officially proclaimed that the first information which reached him of the collapse of the Confederacy and the consequent close of the war, was on the 30th of last August, nearly three months since.

The London Star, in commenting upon the arrival and delivery of the Shenandoah, declares that if the United States Government claim the vessel, the British authorities can have no good reason for refusing compliance with the demand.

Lord John Russell has been installed in the Premiership and Lord Clarendon as the head of foreign affairs.

LATER:—Washington, Nov. 21. The Shenandoah has been delivered up to the American Consul and will be sent to New York. The Captain and her crew have been unconditionally discharged.

Spanish Slavery.

The Queen of Spain has published an important decree forbidding the extension of slavery in the Spanish colonies, and establishing a system of gradual emancipation. To effectually carry out these orders, the Spanish squadron in American waters will be increased.

MEXICO.—News received states that Maximilian has ordered all his forces to be withdrawn from outposts and concentrated at three points—Vera Cruz, city of Mexico and San Louis Potosi. The Liberals are much comforted at the report that mutual aid will soon reach them.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS ORDERED.—Washington, Nov. 20.—All the regular United States cavalry, excepting the Fifth regiment, have been ordered to San Antonio Texas.

The Jamaica Rebellion.

NEW YORK, NOV. 18th.—The Jamaica Standard says, over a thousand and fifty rebels have been hanged, and that it is probable before the court martial closes two thousand will suffer death for the attempt at extermination.

WHOLESALE EXECUSION OF NEGROES IN JAMAICA.—The Court Martial, presided over by Lieutenant and Commander Brand, met at 12 o'clock to-day (Monday.) Sixteen of the rebel negroes were condemned to death, and one of them flogged—100 lashes. Late in the evening twelve were hanged. Among them is the notorious Cowell. This fellow pretends to be a Babtist parson, and officiated in Paul Bogle's Chapel at Stony Gut. He was in an extremely emaciated condition and could hardly support himself. He called on the people to take warning by him.

There is one continual scene of hanging day by day, and it becomes a matter for consideration whether the burial of so many people (packed, as I heard a Blue Jacket say, "like sardines") in the town is not likely to produce some serious epidemic here. Already the effluvia arising from the graves in which these dead bodies are interred pervades the entire town, and it was not without difficulty that one could avoid getting nauseated. This ought to be looked after—it is a matter of vital importance.

GEORGIA.—A correspondent of the Atlanta Intelligencer, communicates to that paper very interesting facts in relation to the gold mines of Carroll county. He says that Pine Mountain, within two miles of the Villa Rica, is composed of veins of gold bearing quartz, that could be profitably worked by a dozen engines and five hundred men for the next twenty years. There are several other lodes of equal richness in the same county, which only require capital to make them available. Parallel with the gold veins runs a "copper streak" in which shafts have already been sunk. The ore raised has proved to be of the best character. The line of the railroad lately projected from Atlanta, to Jacksonville, Ala., will run between these gold and copper mines The completion of this road will facilitate the working of so rich a field.

The following populations of the cities of the United States, which number over 50,000, are from official data in the Interior Department.—Several of these cities have largely increased since 1860. None, however, so much as Washington, which has, undoubtedly doubled in population:

POPULATION.—New York, 805,650; Philadelphia, 585,529; Brooklyn, 286,661; Baltimore, 212,418; Boston, 171,813; New Orleans, 168 675; Cincinnati, 161,044; St. Louis, 163,773; Chicago, 109,260; Buffalo, 81,189; Newark, 71,914; Louisville, 68,033; Albany, 68,267; Washington, 61,122; San Francisco, 56, 802; Providence, 50,666.

DEATH OF GEN. DUFF GREEN.—It is reported by telegraph from Cincinnati that Gen Duff Green, of Alabama, well known through out the country as a prominent political writer, died at Mobile on the 10th instant. General Green was many years ago the publisher of the United States Telegraph at Washington. Since the war he lived in the South, chiefly in Georgia, and his health has been failing for some time.

NEW YORK, Nov 14.—Hon Preston King, Collector of this port, jumped overboard from the Hoboken ferry boat while in a state of temporary aberration of mind. His body has not been recovered.

The total receipts from internal revenue from the 30th of June to the 11th of November, foots up the enormous sum of $137,865,362 43.

George Davis, Attorney General of the so called Confederate States, has been arrested in Florida, and carried to New York and is now held in custody.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The five per cent. one and two years Treasury notes, falling due on and after the first proximo, will be paid at the Treasury Department at maturity.

About seventy thousand Chinese are scattered along the Pacific coast, and may be seen in all directions, working industriously, and are generally from among the peasants about Canton and Hong Kong. A San Francisco letter writer thus notices them: "Thousands of the Chinese are gleaners in the gold fields. They follow in crowds after the white miners, working or washing over their deserted or neglected sands, and thriving on results that their predecessors would despise. A Chinese gold washer is content with $1 to $2 a day, while the white man starves or moves on disgusted with twice that. A very considerable portion of the present gold production of California must now be the work of Chinese painstaking and moderate ambition. The traveler meets these Chinese miners every where on his road through the State—at work in the deserted ditches or moving from one to another, on foot with their packs, or often in the stage, sharing the seats and paying the price of their aristocratic Saxon rivals."

THE NATIONAL EXPRESS COMPANY, it appears, has been fully organized by the election of Gen. Joseph E. Johnston as President, and it is report that Gen. Rosecrants will accept the position of Vice President. Gen P. T Moore, of Richmond, Va., is Secretary; G. n. J. D. Imboden, of Virginia, General superintendent, John A Brown, Superintendent of the southern division. John O. Reid, Superintendent of the northern division. Superintendents of particular States have also been appointed among whom is Gen. Robert Ransom for North Carolina. This Company will become a very formidable competitor of the Adams Express Company, so long, and we will say, so favorably known, as a prompt and punctual public servant. We have no doubt both Companies will have enough to do, and will prove a great advantage to the country.

Atlanta, Georgia, is going ahead at a rapid pace, as will appear from the following:

And old citizen of the place says that at least five hundred new structures of various sorts and sizes are going up in the city.—Many of the buildings are necessarily unsubstantial, from the use in them of brick that have been heated and crumbled, and, for lack of materials, many walls are laid in mortar made of clay alone. Scores of storehouses are rebuilt a story high, and roofed over to await more prosperous times for completion. Rents are enormously high. Two store-rooms, above and below, of ordinary width, rent at $275 per month; for a frame house of four rooms $100 a month is paid. As nearly as can be estimated, the population of Atlanta is about 22,000.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Legislature of this State adjourned on the 13th inst. They will meet in regular session, under the new constitution, on Saturday before the 4th Monday of the present month. The body, before adjournment, ratified the amendment to the constitution of the United States forever abolishing slavery.

AN OUTRAGE.—We learn as we go to press that a gang of desperadoes entered Mr. Hairston's house at Trading ford on the night of the 16th inst., and broke everything to pieces they could not carry off. The party are supposed to be negroes Salisbury Banner.

Extremes meet. Civilization and barbarism come together. Savage Indians and fashionable ladies paint their faces.

The United States' Treasurer's monthly statement for October has just been made public, from which it appears that the total amount of coin on deposit the first of this month was nearly one hundred millions of dollars. About thirty millions of this amount was on deposit in the national banks, but was considered at any moment available by the government.

The Senate of the American Fenian organization, which has been in session in New York, for two weeks, adjourned on Tuesday.

The indebtedness of New York State, incurred in paying bounties to volunteers and substitutes, will probably reach over twenty-five millions of dollars.

WASHINGTON, Nov 16.—Advices from Spain inform the Government here that the Queen has issued a decree positively forbidding the extension of negro slavery within the Spanish colonies.

The Hebrews furnished 40,000 soldiers for the Union Army in the late war, and they have establish asylums for disabled soldiers, widows and orphans at New York, Philadelphia Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis.

Address.

To the People of North Carolina.

Fellow-citizens:—Having been appointed by the President of the United States Provisional Governor of North Carolina, I have come among you to perform the duties of that office. I am a native citizen of the State, and have long been a resident of it. I have mingled with you in your happiness, and have participated in your sorrows. I have been with you in your prosperity, and have felt the anguish of your reverses. I have been identified with your interests, and have shared your hopes. I have been one of you, and I am now your fellow-citizen.

I have not been a blind observer of the causes which have led to the present condition of affairs in the country. I have not been unmindful of the grievances which have been complained of by the people of the South. I have not been insensible to the aggressions which have been committed by the people of the North upon the rights of the States. I have not been indifferent to the danger which has threatened the liberties of the whole country. I have not been silent in my disapprobation of the encroachments which have been made upon the Constitution, by the Federal Government, and by the people of the North. I have not been slow to perceive the dangers which have arisen from the fanaticism which has sprung up at the North, and which has seemed to be subversive of the peace and happiness of the country. I have not been unwilling to see the grievances of the South redressed, and to see proper guarantees for the future peace and safety of the South. I have not been unwilling to see the Constitution of the United States so amended as to secure the rights of the States, and to prevent the recurrence of the evils complained of. I have not been unwilling to see the Union restored, with the Constitution of the United States as it is, and as it was intended to be by the patriots who framed it.

I have been a slaveholder, and have felt the full force of the system of slavery. I have been born and reared under it, and have been blessed by it. I have been taught to look upon it as a great political, social, and moral institution. I have been taught to look upon it as the corner-stone of the Republic. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the prosperity of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the wealth of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the happiness of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the peace of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the safety of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the liberty of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the glory of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the honor of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the virtue of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the religion of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the morality of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the intelligence of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the education of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the civilization of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the progress of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the prosperity of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the wealth of the country. I have been taught to look upon it as the great source of the happiness of the country. Gov. Brownlow in a Fight.

Nashville, November 16.—Gov. Brownlow had an encounter yesterday evening with a couple of rebel soldiers at Franklin. One of them had begged alms of Mrs. Brownlow on the ground of his having [illegible] the Confederacy. Upon the telling [illegible] give him anything for such [illegible] grew angry and cursed her. When the Governor learned of the affair he went in search of the offender, whom he found in company with another rebel soldier who made common cause with him. The Governor whipped them both very genteelly.

THE NEW COUNTERFEIT FIFTY DOLLAR NOTE

A new counterfeit legal tender note of the denomination of fifty dollars has been prepared, which has been pronounced the most difficult of detection of any which has been issued lately. [illegible], however, two discrepancies between the genuine and the spurious notes which will be apparent to the public. One of them is in that part of the engraving of the head of Hamilton, upon the face of the note, which represents the lines to the waistcoat crossing the white collar at the neck.—The acute angel formed by the shape of the collar, so far as is shown, is perfect in the counterfeit note; but in the genuine the lines of the flesh were drawn by the engraver across the point of the collar at its junction with the waistcoat, for the purpose of relieving the angle of the sharpness it would otherwise exhibit.

The difference is not observed unless the note is [illegible] clean The other discrepancy is in the shape of the ornaments in the border on each end of the face of the bill, and on the whole border on the back. The figures "50" are engraved on a green ground, of which the rim in the genuine bill is in octagonal form, rather well defined, though the angles are not sharp. The eight sides of what, at first view, appeared to be circles, may be especially discerned. In the counterfeit bill, the border ornaments containing the "50" are not gonal in only a very slight degree, and so used to be perfect circles. The general appearance of the counterfeit gives no indication of its true character. It would be the best course to pursue in regard to these particular fifties to refuse them entirely until the Government can make a re-issue to take their place.

Richmond Whig.

CIRCULAR.

To the Freedmen of Western North Carolina, and adjoining District of South Carolina.

HEADQUARTERS FREEDMEN'S BUREAU,
Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 1, 1865.

Knowing that many of you have wrong impressions relative to your freedom, I send this Circular that it may correct many erroneous ideas which are operating very much against your interests. I have learned that many of you have the foolish idea that at Christmas you are to receive lands, horses and farming utensils; that you expect the United States Government to give to you a portion of your master's property or plantation. As to this, let me say to you all that the Government has no land in this portion of the State, and that all plantations and property of all kinds (except the negro) belong to your masters as heretofore—the Government having no claim upon them whatever. Any of you having such expectations, must at once and forever abandon such preposterous and absurd ideas; and any person or persons trying to make you believe anything of the kind, are either fools or knaves, and are imposing upon your ignorance.

The Government has given you your freedom, and you must not expect anything further from it. The Government expects you to labor and work out your own salvation and unless you do, you go back to slavery or a condition far worse. Any property that you may possess hereafter you must acquire by labor, industry and honesty. At the end of this year, those who have remained with their former masters and worked faithfully, will be paid liberally for their labor, and will be able to provide clothing and food for themselves and families for a portion of another year, and will, in the mean time, if they have so conducted themselves as to gain the confidence and respect of their employers, be able to retain their places for another year, or to obtain of others good situations and good pay. Many of those who have left their former homes and idled away the proper season for the making of crops, will at the end of the year, find themselves destitute of food and clothing, and in a situation far worse than slavery. A long winter is before you, and unless you provide for that time your families must suffer—yes, many must perish.

Many of you are under the impression that the Government will feed you. This is not so, the Government will not feed any who have had an opportunity and are able to labor. You have had four months of freedom, and all that which could get work for themselves and families, and those who have not improved the past four months of their freedom must abide by the consequences.

Ere long the troops will be withdrawn from the State. You will be left to provide for and protect yourselves. By your labor you can provide, and by your good behaviour you will secure protection. You must know that your freedom has taken away that interest which your former masters had for you. While in slavery you were their property—they valued you as dollars and cents—and it was their interest to feed, clothe, and nurse you in sickness; but now that interest has gone. The responsibilities that then rested upon them, now fall upon you, and you only. Your first step now should be to establish for yourselves a character for industry and integrity, and unless you do so, your fate will be that of the North American Indian—your race will pass away and then you will be known only in name.

Then let me entreat you, as a friend, ere it is too late, to think of these things—to look upon the position as it is, and make the resolve that you will make a good name and a place in this great and free commonwealth.

The government has guaranteed to you certain rights and privileges. In those rights you will be protected. Your rights consist in your freedom to make your own contracts, to receive the benefit of your own labor, to choose your own employer, to keep and govern your own families, to educate your children, and to worship God after your own manner. The same power that gave you these rights and privileges have imposed upon you certain and new duties, compelling you to labor to support your families, and to obey the laws of your country, to show respect and prompt obedience to your employers, to fulfill and respect all contracts, to hold the marriage tie as sacred, and to so conduct [illegible]

Fulfill, then, these requirements, and all will be well. Reject them, and your condition will be a far worse one than you ever experienced when in slavery. It is true that there are some bad men that will take advantage of your ignorance and impose upon you. Some may try to defraud you of your wages, and a few are wicked and cowardly enough to revenge their losses upon you by violence; but have patience, and ere long these matters will regulate themselves. But good behaviour on your part will ever gain for you the respect and protection of all good and just men.

Since I have been among you I have discovered that a majority of you look upon your former masters as your enemies, and upon the "Yankees" as your only friends. In this you are mistaken. I am from the North, and know well the feelings that exist there towards the negro. I know that a majority of the Northern people will not willingly consent to your becoming citizens among them. The Government, through a military necessity, has given you freedom, and in that freedom the people of the North will ever protect you unless you become unworthy of their protection.

The South is your natural home, and Southern men will be your friends. The majority of you were raised, have grown up on the same plantations with your former masters; and I know it to be a fact that there is a feeling, a sympathy, existing between you that does not, no never can exist between you and the people of the North. If some others are your enemies it is your bad behavior that has made them so. The fact is that you know not how to appreciate your freedom, and have grossly abused it.

Become respectful, obedient and honest to your employers, and you will find them first in paving the way for your future welfare.—To become a prosperous and intelligent people, many of you will have to pursue a far different course from that of the past few months of your freedom. It is true that some have realized the responsibilities that freedom has brought upon them, and have been faithful and obedient to their employers. But many of you have become impudent, lazy and disrespectful to those to whom you must look for your support. Many are idling and loafing away their time around towns and camps, while their families are suffering for food and clothing, and many without shelter. You alone are accountable for the sad fate that awaits you.

Since I came among you I have learned the fact that as a people you have very little regard for the truth. In fact, I have lost all confidence in your veracity, and know not when or whom to believe. I find that you are disposed to utter falsehoods when the truth would answer your purpose far better.

Hereafter those coming to me for the purpose of getting justice in cases between themselves and employers, must come with the truth, if not they must not expect me to assist them in their difficulties. Such lies as you tell are not only impositions upon me, but upon the public, and must be stopped.

I have ascertained that many of you object to written contracts. This is another evidence of your ignorance of freedom. Written contracts are the only safeguard to free labor. It is simply the binding of two or more parties to fulfill a voluntary agreement or agreements between themselves and employers. These contracts are in no way connected with slavery, but a system adopted by free labor everywhere. By making contracts in writing you bind yourselves to do certain labor; the same contract obligates your employer to pay for that labor. A contract is the proof of your agreement, and I advise that you make agreements in writing, fulfil them to the letter, and the laws will ever see that you have your rights. For another year adopt this system, and by complying with your agreement you will have no trouble in collecting your just dues.

It has been reported to me that in some portions of this district, Freedmen are holding secret meetings. This is against the laws, and must be prevented, and any persons holding or participating in such meetings will be arrested and punished most severely. What the objects of these meetings are I know not, but no good can arise from them; but much harm.

I also wish to caution you against one other matter—that is as regards your right to vote. You have other and more important matters to attend to now. Never agitate this question, but leave it for others to settle. In order to vote, a man should be educated. You are not. Had you that right in your present situation it would be a curse to you—you would be as so many tools in the hands of bad men and politicians. So dream not of things that at this time would be your disadvantage and to your injury.

In conclusion, let me say that this circular is sent to you for your good, for your own benefit. Live and govern yourselves by it, and ere six months you will thank me for the advice and instruction contained in it. You must do for yourselves, or I can do but little for you. The Government now offered you of becoming a great and prosperous people.—In order to accomplish this you must labor, live honestly, uprightly and in the fear of God.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.

LITERATURE, SCIENCE, AND ART.

New Volume begins January, 1866.

THE ECLECTIC MAGAZINE is, as its name indicates, a selection from other magazines and periodicals. These selections are carefully made each month, from the entire range of foreign periodicals. In this respect it is entirely unique among periodicals, and has no rival. The following are some of the works from which selections are made:

London Quarterly,	Revue de Deux Mondes,
British Quarterly,	London Society,
North British Review,	Bentley's Miscellany,
Popular Science Review,	Cornhill Magazine,
Saturday Review,	Frazer's Magazine,
Leisure Hour,	Temple Bar,
Westminster Review,	Chambers' Journal,
Dublin Univ. Magazine,	Edinburg Review,
Art Journal,	London National Review.

We have also arranged to secure choice selections from the FRENCH, GERMAN, AND OTHER CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS, translated especially for the Eclectic, and it is hoped this new feature will add greatly to the variety and value of the work.

EMBELISHMENTS.

Each number is embellished with one or more Fine Steel Engravings—portraits of eminent men or illustrative of important historical events.

Volumes commence in January and July of each year; subscriptions can commence with any month.

Terms: $5 per year; Single numbers 50 cents. Five Copies $20.

The Trade, Clergymen, Teachers, and Clubs supplied on favorable terms. Address,

W. H. BIDWELL, 5 Beekman St.,

$25 REWARD!

STOLEN from the stable of the subscriber, on Monday night the 16th instant, a large black mare mule. She had a white spot on her left hip, and one near the root of her tail. She is rubbed on her right fore foot from haltering her to pick, and she is "touchy" on the top of her head. A reward of twenty-five dollars will be paid to any person that will deliver the said mule to me at Liberty, Forsyth Co., N. C., or furnish me with information that will lead to her recovery.

THIS OFFICE.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK,

For 1866.

THE FASHION MAGAZINE OF THE WORLD,

LITERATURE, FINE ARTS & FASHIONS.

The most magnificent steel engravings. DOUBLE FASHION PLATES. Wood engravings on every subject that can interest ladies. Crochet, Knitting, Netting, Embroidery, Articles for the Toilet, for the Parlor, the Boudoir, and the Kitchen. Everything, in fact, to make a complete Lady's Book.

THE LADIES' FAVORITE FOR 16 YEARS.

No Magazine has been able to compete with it. None attempt it.

GODEY'S RECIPES

for every department of a household. These alone are worth the price of the Book.

MODEL COTTAGES, (no other Magazine gives them) with Diagrams.

DRAWING LESSONS FOR THE YOUNG.—Another specialty with Godey.

ORIGINAL MUSIC, worth $3 00 a year.—Other Magazines publish old worn out music; but the subscribers to Godey get it before the Music Stores.

GARDENING FOR LADIES.—Another peculiarity with Godey.

Fashions from Messrs. A. T. Stewart & Co., of New York, the millionaire merchants, appear in Godey, the only Magazine that has them.

Ladies' Bonnets. We give more of them in a year than any other Magazine. In fact, the Lady's Book enables every lady to be her own bonnet maker.

MARION HARLAND,

Authoress of "Alone," "Hidden Path," "Moss Side," "Nemesis," and "Miriam," writes for Godey each month, and for no other Magazine. A new novel by her will be published in 1866. We have also retained all our old and favorite contributors.

I am Fearful to obtain a supply of Peruvian Guano expected, on account of its scarcity and very high price. I have instead now on hand for sale,

FORD'S PHOSPHATIC GUANO OR FERTILIZER,

An improver of the land, superior for Wheat, Tobacco, Corn, Cotton, &c. &c. containing elements essential to the production of Grain, &c., and improvements of the lands, and is confidently recommended to bring large crops and to be tried side by side with any other fertilizer, even Peruvian Guano. Sold by the Bag or Ton.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, JEWELRY, SPECTACLES, WATCH CHAINS, KEYS, &c.

My Jewelry Store not being open at the present time, you will find a lot of the above specified articles in my Store, and any article desired and not on hand, I will procure at a very few days' notice.

BARTER.

I will barter for any and everything produced in the Country that I can at all use or dispose of elsewhere. Will take all kinds of Grain, Flax-Seed, Bees-Wax, Eggs, Dried Fruit, Chestnuts, &c. Any one having either of the before-named articles to dispose of, if they will consult their own interest, and sell where they can get the highest market price, or trade where they will be sure to go away satisfied, will call on me, for I WILL PAY CASH as well as GOODS, and will give as high prices, as any one in this section can possibly afford. Finally, I would say, GIVE ME A CALL, and I know you will trade. I here not gone into business here only for a few days, my lot is with you.—here I have been raised, and you all know me—I am encouraged to believe that I have established among you a character for honesty and fair dealing, and, intend, by honest dealing and close attention to business, to merit a continuance of the very liberal patronage so far received.—Thankful for past favors, I ask you to place me under renewed obligations for still further ones.—Call and see me.

THE GREAT LITERARY WEEKLY RESUMED!

THE PROPRIETORS OF THAT LONG ESTABLISHED and popular Family Journal,

The Southern Field and Fireside, take great pleasure in informing its numerous friends and patrons that its publication will be resumed October 15th 1865. It will be elegantly printed, on eight large pages, size of its original dimensions, containing forty columns of reading matter.

Its Editorial Staff is large and complete, being composed of gentlemen of long experience and thorough capacity.

Its corps of contributors comprises all the old popular writers whose pieces are as familiar to the reading public as household words, to which we have added by various negotiations a great many more able and prominent literateurs, aggregating an unrivalled array of talent in a combination of over who are actively engaged in writing for its pages.

We are determined it shall not be excelled by any similar publication in the United States in any feature that will enhance its real value as a family Journal, or increase its interest as a high-toned literary weekly.
